

19th Century Antique

A gesso and pine late nineteenth century chimneypiece. Finely carved gesso acanthus leaves sweep over the bolection curve along with pansies on fine, spritely stems. For all its ebullience, this carving is held within strict lines and stands upon two simple foot blocks. A near identical chimneypiece, meticulously hand stripped in a similar manner, can be seen in Petworth House.

Dimensions

Height 41 $\frac{7}{8}$ in (106.5cm) width 53 $\frac{3}{4}$ in (136.5cm)

Internal height 36 $\frac{1}{4}$ in (92cm) width 38 $\frac{1}{4}$ in (97cm)

Reference

N449