

18th Century Antique

A mid eighteenth-century George II carved pine and gesso chimney piece, featuring gesso urns and a tall frieze of flutes and spears, the grain of the stripped wood running through the carving unheeded. Dentil moulding underlines the tiered shelf and oak leaves and acorns fall down the jambs with grace.

Dimensions

Height 55½in (140cm) width 61in (155cm)

Internal height 40¾in (103.5cm) width 43¼in (110cm)

Footblock to footblock 56⅞in (144.5cm)

Shelf depth 4½in (11.5cm)

Reference

G484