

18th Century Antique

Predominantly uncarved, this stripped pine and gesso chimney piece is of neoclassical form and austere complexion. A waterleaf moulding in gesso frames the aperture and the central tablet shows a bower of ebullient acanthus scrolls, the leaves and stems delicate and the symmetry pleasing.

Dimensions

Height 60 $\frac{5}{8}$ in (154cm) width 76in (193cm)

Internal height 48 $\frac{7}{8}$ in (124cm) width 50 $\frac{3}{8}$ in (128cm)

Footblock to footblock 68 $\frac{1}{8}$ in (173cm)

Shelf depth 5 $\frac{7}{8}$ in (15cm)

Reference

G487