

18th Century Antique

An 18th century Irish Palladian chimneypiece carved in Black Kilkenny fossil marble. The limestone header and jambs are packed with fossils of seashells and coral. A moulded, tiered, breakfront shelf sits atop a plain frieze with an uncarved tablet at its centre. The jambs are capped with scrolling brackets. This piece of Palladian architectural design is powerful in its simplistic beauty.

Dimensions

Height 51 $\frac{3}{4}$ in (131.5cm) width 60 $\frac{1}{2}$ in (153.5cm)

Internal height 38 $\frac{3}{8}$ in (97.5cm) width 33 $\frac{5}{8}$ in (85.5cm)

Footblock to footblock 53 $\frac{3}{8}$ in (135.5cm)

Shelf depth 6 $\frac{7}{8}$ in (17.5cm)

Reference

G474