

19th Century Antique

A rare and unusual early 19th century Regency chimneypiece in Carrara marble and Devonshire Fossil. A well proportioned fireplace showing cabochons on the frieze carved in rare materials from the ancient tropical coral seas of Britain. An oval in 'featherstone' fossil at centre is flanked by petitor bookmatched diamonds at the sides and fine Ashburton roundels as cornerblocks.

Dimensions

Height 45½in (115.5cm) width 62¾in (159.3cm)

Internal height 37¾in (96cm) width 39¾in (100cm)

Footblock to footblock 53¾in (136.5cm)

Shelf depth 6in (15.2cm)

Reference

N462